

Fundraising Tips

Most donors contribute because

- they know and want to support you
- your nonprofit resonates with them
- they're amazed by your fundraising efforts or the event you're tackling
- they can see the direct impact their donation makes

The essentials for successful fundraising

- Tell your story the more personal, the better, and you might share:
 - o why you are fundraising
 - o why this cause is important to you
 - o what impact each donation will make every $350 gives a child the chance to go to school!
- Set a fundraising goal donors want to see you succeed
 - o set a fundraising target when editing your fundraising page
 - o give updates on the status of your fundraising goal
 - o raise your goal once you reach it update your donors again
- Add a picture add an image that speaks to your donors
- Tell your contacts share your fundraising page with family, friends, co-workers or anyone in your community.
- Thank your donors Don't forget to personally thank your donors for their support. Donors receive an emailed receipt when they give through your site. RISE also sends a letter of acknowledgment and tax receipt for both online and offline donations.
- Keep sharing send updates on your fundraising, life, or training. Sharing your stories about challenges and achieving milestones makes donors feel a part of your fundraising efforts.
- Link to or add your page to your social media sites
- Optimize the matching gift a matching gift is a benefit that many companies provide, where they match all or part of their employee's charitable donations. To optimize your donor's matching gift programs:
 - o ask your donors if their companies provide matching gifts
 - o Tax ID number (EIN) 36-4435162, 790 Frontage Rd., Northfield, IL 60093
 - o tell your nonprofit that a matching gift is coming so they can look for it
- Be creative you could offer your services in exchange for a donation to your fundraising page, you could babysit, drive a friend to the airport, rake leaves, shovel snow, cut the grass
